ANNUAL REPORT 2019

Braiden received equine emotional therapy thanks to our counseling grant from WHAS Crusade for Children

2019 IMPACT

- Worked with 47 pediatric health providers and nonprofits Partners to service 432 families with critically and chronically ill children
- Provided 198 Getting Started Medical Binders to parents near the onset of their child's serious diagnosis
- Completed 3 eight week support groups with Bible Study at churches around the community
- Had 106 volunteers serve 623 hours of time
- Held our first Annual Special Needs Family Picnic to connect families to one another for organic support
- Continued offering professional counseling to special needs children who demonstrated a financial need
- Worked on a project with Face It to develop materials aimed at preventing child abuse in special needs children
- Partnered with FEAT, Face It, Barren Heights and Down Syndrome of Louisville to host two Special Needs Mom's Night Out to give caregivers a much needed night of pampering. Moms were provided dinner, learned stress relieving yoga, did their nails and received a massage, among other activities
- Completed development of new Bible study curriculum with MOPS International
- Participated in events with partners Barren Heights and New Day Ministries to meet the needs of the underserved in our community
- Met one on one with parents to support them and provide resources
